WE SEE THERE HAS BEEN A BIG FIRE AT Petersburg, Virginia, in which one of HERRING'S safes withstood a slege of flame for many hours, and when dug out of its bed of fire, with its knob melted off, was found true to its trust. Even the inside paint was not bilst-red, and $40,000 in bills, peele, &c., were taken from its drawers unscorched. Messrs. Morrison & Marable, of Potersburg, in whose store the fire occurred, certify to the fact in a lotter to Mr. Herring, and the press of that city also refer to it in terms highly complimentary to that gentleman. The safe was one of Herring's ["champions," which, in overy frewhere their qualities have been tested, seem to have borae away the "belt" from all competitors.
